Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine testimonials on "Heart and Nervous Diseases" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Gayle.

Bridgeport.

Will Thacker, better known as Flick, was down to see his old chums not long since.

Frank Deering will return to his home in Jacksonville, Florida, on the 15th of this month.

Miss Nellie Wilson, of Anderson county, is the guest of Miss Sallie Wilson.

Rev. T. J. Stevenson attended the Baptist General Association at Williamsburg last week, consequently he failed to put in his appearance for a series of sermons at South Benson at the appointed time.

A protracted meeting will commence at Evergreen to-morrow, conducted by the pastor.

The next regular meeting of the Farmers' Alliance of Franklin county will be held in Frankfort at 10 o'clock a. m. on the fourth Saturday in November.

W. H. Parent, having resigned as Secretary of the Franklin County Alliance, Allison was elected. His post office is Zilpah, Shelby county, Ky. All correspondents will note the change.

The many friends of Mrs. Kizzie Vanatta will be glad to learn that she is slowly improving.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and coachmen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced, usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book containing many marvelous cures. See at J. W. Gayle's, who also sells and guarantees Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the best of heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

W. L. Coppersmith, the jeweler, is the leading repairer in the city. 234 St. Clair street. 45-1y.

W. L. Coppersmith challenges comparison in workmanship on any repairs in his line. 234 St. Clair street. 45-1y.

Among the Colored Citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Canada wish to return their thanks to their friends for the valuable presents they received at their china wedding, both silver and china. Lunch was served from 3 o'clock to 10 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Jerry Hallock, and a great many were present, every one seeming to enjoy themselves in the highest degree.

The pastor of the South Frankfort Church is out asking our people to aid him in finishing his church building before the winter sets in, and any contributions to him will be thankfully received.

The china wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Canada was a very pleasant affair and they received a number of valuable and handsome presents, which show the esteem in which they are held by our people. We wish them many happy returns of the day.

Things have been rather unpleasant on lower Washington street this week but all is now serene.

There was a meeting of the literary society last night, and next Friday night the election takes place. Several young men have been fixing up their fences for the office of President, and several young ladies have also remarked that they would not refuse to serve if they were elected to the office. So whenever you do, boys and girls, stick to home in the race.

Miss Tilford, of Harrodsburg, who has been visiting here for some time, returned home this week.

Lodge is expected to be present at the hall on Wednesday night. Business of importance will come before the body.

Where is the missionary society that was so flourishing just a little while back? Why not call a meeting and revive things a bit.

The Teachers' Association held a meeting last night and a well arranged programme was rendered.

The After Dinner Club should call a meeting and organize to be in good trim for Thanksgiving turkey eating.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor will be celebrated at their residence on Ninth street in Louisville on the 30th inst. They are well known in this city, and it will doubtless be a grand affair. Those who go will be well entertained.

W. L. Coppersmith makes a specialty of fine work. Resetting diamonds, etc. 234 St. Clair street. 45-1y.

W. L. Coppersmith, the jeweler, does the best of work at moderate prices. Call and see. 234 St. Clair street. 45-1y.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT, LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,351 hhds., with receipts of 368 for the same period. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 140,068 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1890 on our market to date 98,021 hhds.

The offerings have been light on our market this week and there is no material change to note in prices, but the general tendency has been toward an improvement. Quite a little lot of tobacco has been sold during the week at prices ranging from $25.00 to $30.00. Only a few bogheads of the new crop have come forward as yet but the prices realized for such this week have been at better figures than was realized for the first sales of the new crop.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco.....	$2 00 @ $3 50
Colony trash.....	3 00 @ 4 00
Common light colony.....	3 50 @ 4 00
Colony lugs.....	6 50 @ 10 00
Common leaf.....	5 00 @ 8 00
Medium to good leaf.....	7 50 @ 10 00
Good to fine fillers.....	12 00 @ 22 00
Select or wrappry leaf.....	22 00 @ 33 00

Its Excellent Qualities

Comment to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it. 9-1m.

Y. M. I. Hop.

Y. M. I., No. 161, will give their initial hop at the Capital Hotel ball room on Thursday evening next, November 19th. The young gentlemen having the arrangements in charge have had considerable experience in such matters and the hop is sure to be a pleasant affair.

Chinquapias.

During his stay at Eureka Spring, Arkansas, Mr. J. S. McKendrick whiled away leisure time in pleasant weather gathering chinquapias in the Ozark Mountains and brought a lot home with him. They are delighted little nuts as we can testify, Mr. Mac. having presented us with some of them.

The Sunday Call.

Mr. John B. Dryden's new paper, made its first appearance last Sunday. It presents a neat appearance, was well-printed and chock full of new matter, as well as a liberal supply of advertisements. You can't keep an old newspaper man down, and Dryden is bound to climb on top. We wish the new enterprise abundant success.

LIES, PURE AND SIMPLE.

A Louisville Ananias in the Field Early.

It is usual for the Jack anaps who above pencils for Louisville dailies to wait until the Legislature meets before they begin to manufacture new lies, or rehash the old ones which have been told every two years for ages past about Frankfort and her hotels, but the Louisville Commercial of Thursday gets in ahead of time with a string of yarns so ancient that their whiskers have grown and been toyed with by the winds of half a century past. The youth who cut the article from an old file of the Commercial simply gave it an air of newness by fitting in a reference or two to the action of the Constitutional Convention in locating the Capital here and fired it off as original matter.

The same old gag of interviewing a member of the next Legislature, who had been here to secure board for the winter, is worked off, and the honorable gentlemen from Way-back county is made to do the lying for the reporter about a trust having been formed in this city by the boarding-house keepers and the price of board unalterably fixed at $15 per week.

There is not a word of truth in the whole article. No member of the Legislature has been to either of the hotels to secure board, several have written to the hotel proprietors but none have come in person. We are informed by the proprietors of both the Capital and Kenyon that their rates will be exactly the same that they have always been; and as for the "trust" having been formed by the boarding-house keepers to force the price of board up to $15 per week, that is such a preposterous statement that even the fellow who wrote it for the Commercial does not believe it himself.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning; the signal perhaps of the sure approach of that most terrible disease Consumption? Ask yourself if you can afford, for the sake of saved life, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves cough and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. W. GAYLE.

Charley Phytlian Dead.

Mr. Charles Phytlian died at his home, on the Lewis Ferry pike, three miles below this city, Thursday morning, after an illness of only four days with grip and pneumonia, aged about 57 years. The deceased was a brother of the late Dr. W. H. Phytlian, of this city, and of Dr. John L. Phytlian, of Newport. He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from his late residence and the remains will be deposited in the family lot in the cemetery.

Progressive Eucure.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Pepper gave a card party last night in honor of Mrs. Clay Hatchitt, of Newtown, Scott county. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and shrubbery and presented a most pleasing appearance. The prizes were very handsome and were won by Mrs. Judge Caswell Bennett and Mr. L. Labrot. A delightful supper was served about 12 o'clock.

WEALTH—Is something which most people seek, and which few are indifferent to no matter in what form it presents itself. The word "pecuniary," which is often used in speaking of a man's riches, comes from the Latin word pecunia, which means cattle, and shows that formerly a man's wealth was reckoned by the cattle he possessed. Abraham is said to have been "very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold." But no matter in what a man's riches may consist, it is all vanity and vexation of spirit, unless in connection therewith he has health, and we have no doubt if he had known the virtues of S. S. S. that he would have recommended its use to all persons suffering from the diseases for which it is recommended. Treatise on blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

A Queer Potato.

Mr. Boob McDonald, of Swallowfield, this county, has sent us an Irish potato, raised on his place, which is ten potatoes in one. The different parts are joined together in such a manner as to give it very much the appearance of a Turk's head cactus. The main stem is nine inches long, and from one point to another of the projections it is six inches across.

Doll Fair.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will have a doll fair and live doll show during the first part of December.

Ducker.

Heavy rains during the early part of the week.

Wheat looks much better since the rains, and with a favorable winter next season's crop will be good.

Dr. B. W. Thompson and wife have removed to Midway where the doctor will offer his professional services to the people.

A little girl of Mr. A. D. Brown while at play on Monday afternoon was so unfortunate as to fracture her ankle bone, but we are glad to say the little sufferer is doing well.

The sale of Dr. Thompson was notable only for the low price of stock. Registered short horns went from $17 to $35, and other things in proportion.

The sale of A. D. Brown, Esq., on Tuesday last, was postponed until Saturday, owing to the very heavy rain fall throughout the day.

Public sentiment here in regard to the Polsgrove-Williamson affair seems evenly divided. So far as we, as an individual are concerned, we do not believe any circumstance whatever could have justified Polsgrove for shooting into a crowd of innocent men. We believe, too, from what evidence we could gather, that Polsgrove was a victim of Williamson, who he had no fear whatever of Polsgrove.

EX-KENTUCKIAN DEAD.

Death of Capt. M. A. Dehoney at Atlanta, Ga., in His Sixty-Eighth Year.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Capt. M. A. Dehoney died to-day in the sixty-eighth year of his age. Capt. Dehoney was born in Kentucky, where on attaining manhood he became Sheriff of Scott county. He was a devoted adherent of the Hon. John C. Breckinridge, and on the election of the latter to the Vice Presidency in 1856, Sheriff Dehoney became a Deputy United States Marshal for Kentucky. For his service he never received a cent of pay, and it was because of an agitation in his interest that Senator Powell was expelled from the Senate during the war. Capt. Dehoney raised a company for the regiment of Col. Russ Butler, and served during the war. At its close he went into business in Augusta, Ga., and brought to the city his young nephew, J. F. C. Black, who has since achieved fame. He lost $1,000,000, loaned out in one season. After his removal to Savannah he still made friends, and while there he received the last autograph letter to which Gen. Lee ever signed his name. Several years ago Capt. Dehoney removed to Kansas City, where he took charge of the Delmonico Hotel. Two years ago he retired from business.

The above dispatch was clipped from the Courier-Journal of Monday. Capt. Dehoney formerly lived near White Sulphur, Scott county, was a cousin of Mr. W. S. Dehoney, of this city, and has many friends and relatives in this county.

The correspondent of the Courier-Journal is mistaken in saying that Gov. Powell was expelled from the United States Senate for advocating Capt. Dehoney's claim, for he was never expelled from that body, but served out his term.

FRANKFORT, NOV. 14, 1891.

Accidentally Shot.

The friends of Miss Adah Poindexter, a young lady who attended Jessamine Female Institute last year, and visited this city several times last winter and spring, will regret to learn that she was accidentally shot in the left arm, at her home in Carrollton, Mississippi, several weeks ago, the ball entering the forearm on the inside and passing out at the elbow, inflicting a painful flesh wound. She went home to spend the vacation, with the intention of returning to school in the fall, but was detained by the illness of a younger sister until after the first of October and was making preparation to return to Kentucky when the unfortunate accident happened. Her father had left a 32-calibre double-acting revolver lying upon the mantle in her room, and the house girl being afraid to handle fire-arms, Miss Poindexter undertook to dust off the mantle for her, and in so doing moved the weapon when it exploded with the above result. Miss Poindexter is a beautiful and amiable young lady and made a host of friends during her visits here, who sympathize with her in her misfortune.

$10,000 Bond.

The examining trial of Ambrose Polsgrove, who shot and killed Jerry Williamson and wounded W. B. Larkin, Alex. Snellen and Joe Williams upon Main street in this city Monday week ago, was begun before County Judge Ben. G. Williams Monday morning and was concluded Wednesday. A large number of witnesses were examined, and after hearing the argument of the attorneys the Court admitted Polsgrove to bail in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which he gave, with Messrs. R. C. Church, John W. Gaines and O. B. Polsgrove and J. P. Slattery as bonds men.

Four other warrants were sworn out against Polsgrove by County Attorney Johnson, three charging him with malicious shooting and wounding and the fourth for carrying concealed a deadly weapon.

The Drouth Ended.

After many weeks of dry weather, it commenced raining Monday night and kept it up most all of Tuesday, until the earth was well saturated. It was badly needed by the farmers to save their wheat, and many persons in the city who depended upon their cisterns for water had pumped them dry and were carrying water from springs and wells. Many farmers were entirely out of stock water and had to drive their stock some distance to the larger streams. It was indeed a "blessed rain."

Home to Stay.

Mr. Robert B. Franklin, ex-editor of the Three Forks Enterprise, prosecuting attorney of Beattyville City Court and Manager of the Three Forks Investment Company, has resigned all of those positions and decided to locate with his family in this city and make this his home for all time. Bob is a lawyer of ability, as the positions he has filled will testify.

Entertained at Thistleton.

Suit Entered.

Messrs. A. H. McClure, Secretary, and Vernon L. Clark, General Passenger Agent, of the Kentucky Midland Railway, went to Mt. Sterling Thursday and entered suit to test the validity under the new Constitution of the subscription by Montgomery county of $100,000 to the capital stock of the Kentucky Midland.

Receptions.

On Monday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock Mrs. Henry F. Duncan gave one of the most beautiful receptions ever given in this city. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. L. C. Norman and Misses Annie Hines and Todd Saffell.

Mrs. Judge W. H. Sneed held a reception at her house Tuesday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Carlisle, of Covington.

Death of Mr. Smyrie.

Mr. Alexander Smyrie died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. A. Douglas, Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, aged 70 years.

Mr. Smyrie was born in Scotland, and emigrated to this country when a young man, locating in New Hampshire, but came to this city some twelve or fifteen years ago with the family of his son-in-law.

He leaves three children, Mrs. A. Douglas, of this city, Miss Smyrie and Mr. Alex. Smyrie, of Manchester, New Hampshire.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Douglas, on Broadway, the services being conducted by Rev. J. McCluskey Haynes, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church.

New Midland Station.

The Kentucky Midland Railway has leased and also obtained a purchase option upon the Macklin property at the east end of Broadway, for the purpose of improving their depot facilities. A trestle will be built across the old coal yard over which a side track will be laid into the rear of the lot, and the old frame residence adjoining the office of Messrs. E. H. Taylor, Jr., & Sons, so long occupied by the late Mrs. Conery, will be converted into a passenger depot. An arc electric light will be placed in front of the station, and in a short time passengers coming in over the Midland at night can alight upon a good wide platform, well lighted, and from thence can come down upon a good sidewalk, instead of getting off in the dark and wandering around in the mud as they now have to do.

Jail Delivery.

Monday evening about 6 o'clock, the four Kendall boys, confined in the jail at Georgetown upon the charge of killing A. J. Montgomery and John Jarvis in September last, made their escape and are still at large. Last March a man by the name of True, confined in the same jail upon a charge of murder, made his escape by sawing two of the bars at a rear window in two and forcing them apart. New bars were never put in but the old ones were riveted together again, and with the assistance of an old pocket knife and one of the Kendalls and the bars pulled out of position far enough to permit the passage of a man's body. M. H. Kendall, the father of the boys, who was confined in the jail, was too sick to accompany his sons in their flight.

Important to Soldiers.

Resolutions of Respect

To the memory of Sister Virginia Carter, of the Ladies' Missionary Society, of North Fork Baptist Church:

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His alwise providence to call our beloved sister Virginia Carter from this life to that realm of eternal happiness above, therefore, be it

Resolved, That while our hearts are sorely afflicted by this dispensation of Thy providence, and while we cannot understand why one so useful should be taken from our midst, yet we humbly submit ourselves to Thy rulings, knowing that Thou doest all things well.

Resolved, That in the death of sister Carter we have lost our oldest and one of our most useful and beloved members, one whose Christian influence has been felt in our church and community for more than half a century, and by whose Godly walk many have been made to realize that there is a reality in the Christian religion.

Resolved, That we extend to our aged brother Carter and his beloved family our profound sympathy in this their greatest affliction and commend them to Him who has said "My grace is sufficient for thee."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Bro. Carter and spread upon the minutes of this society, and also have it printed in the ROUNDABOUT.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Private Secretary.

A large house greeted the Edwin Travers Company last night in Wm. Gillette's famous comedy, "The Private Secretary," and to merely say it was a success would certainly be drawing it mild. Although the play has been presented here before by some very strong companies, it loses nothing in its strength as presented by the company last night. Special mention should be made of Mr. Wm. Fairbanks in the title role, which we think was better taken than by any one that has assumed the role heretofore. The Catermode of H. Rees Davies, the Douglass of Edwin Travers, the O'Brien of E. J. Mack, the Miss Asford of Miss Bertha Livingston, and the Miss Stead of Miss Nelly Whiting, were all admirably taken. In fact, a more evenly balanced company has not graced the boards of our Opera House this season. The costumes were elegant, the stage settings were elaborate and worthy of the cleanest, funniest and most charming comedy of the present day.—Off City Derrick Pa.

At the Opera House, Nov. 17.

The Clemenceau Case.

That much talked of play, "The Clemenceau Case," which was adopted by William Fieron, from the French dramatization of Dumas' striking novel of the same name, will have its first presentation at the Opera House, Tuesday Nov. 17. The cast includes Miss Emma Bell and others of the participants in the New York standard Theatre production. Those who are not familiar with the novel, for which a large sale has been induced by the presentation of the play in this country, may be informed that the incidents of the play grow out of the exploits of a banished Russian countess, who has come to Paris in a destitute condition with her lovely daughter, Iza.

They are forced to live in top-floor apartments in which the daughter makes a conquest of Pierre Clemenceau, a talented but poor artist, who falls desperately in love with her. She becomes his wife, but soon finds a former lover, who is extremely wealthy. The liaison is made known to the husband by a friend, a duel follows in which the lover is wounded, and the artist husband goes to Rome to drown his trouble by devotion to his art. He fails to do this, returns to Paris, declares his love to the wife, who assures him she responds faithfully. The husband finds that the wife has taken up with a duke, whereupon he kills her and is ready to give himself up to the police; when the curtain falls. It is a strong play, and it is thoroughly French in tone and treatment.
